

Around the World- Page No.24

Answer these questions, and discover more about our diverse and wonderful world.

1. In which country does the westernmost point of Europe lie?

2. Which is the largest island in the world?

3. Which river is the second longest river in Europe, and flows through the capital cities of Vienna, Bratislava, Budapest, and Belgrade?

4. Which is the most populous landlocked country in the world?

5. In which island is the pink land iguana found?

6. Which country has the highest number of lakes in the world?

7. In which continent is the driest place on Earth located?

8. Which country, along with Russia, borders the most number of countries?

9. In which country are nearly 850 languages spoken, the most in the world?

10. Lesotho is one of the three countries to be completely surrounded by another country. Name the country that surrounds Lesotho.

11. In which country is the largest pyramid in the world located?

12. Saigon, a major city of Vietnam, was renamed to honour a famous Communist leader. What is its new name?

The Galapagos Islands are located on the equator. When Charles Darwin visited the Galapagos in 1835, he found that most of the birds, fish, reptiles, and plants were different from the species found in other parts of the world. These strange animals inspired him to formulate the theory of evolution in his book On the Origin of Species. Today, the islands are a wildlife sanctuary and a national park.

