

Subject: - GK

Class: - VII Date 07.11.2020

Teacher: - Ms. Rajdeep Kaur/ Mrs Surmeet kaur

GOVERNING SYSTEM

Page 58

QUES1. Write True and False.

1. India is known as the largest democracy in the world True.
2. United Kingdom is one of the few countries in the world that does not have a written constitution. True
3. Martin Luther King Junior the president of United States of America fought for the civil rights of the people. False
4. the United Arab Emirates is the constitutional Federation of seven emirates. True
5. In France the King is still the Ceremonial head of the state. False

Question 2. answer the following question

1. what is the minimum voting age in Brazil?

Ans 16

2. who formally appointed the prime minister of Japan?

Ans Emperor of Japan

3. Name the system of government in Saudi Arabia.

Ans Monarchy

4. In the United Kingdom the monarch is the head of the state .name the head of the government.

Ans Prime Minister

5. The United States holds presidential elections after how many years?

Ans 4

The chemistry of it.

Page 59

QUES1. Write True and False.

1. Steel was first used by human as a substitute for stone in the neolithic period. False
2. Gold is the element used in developing photographic negatives. FALSE
3. Lime juice contains citric acid. TRUE.
4. Substance such as Caustic soda and baking soda or bases, chemical opposites of acids. True
5. Paper Chromatography is the method used to separate chemical mixtures on the basis of colour. True
6. Glycogen is the common name for ethanol glycol. False
7. Air is an element. FALSE
8. Nitrous oxide is also known as laughing gas. TRUE
9. Rock salt is a mixture of common salt and artificial food colour. False
10. The molecules in a gas move in only One Direction. FALSE

Ques 2. Fill in the blanks.

1. Hydrogen is the lightest and the simplest and the most common found chemical in the universe.
2. Chemical elements are organised in order to increase atomic number in the periodic table
3. Solid carbon dioxide is also called dry ice.
4. At  $-40^{\circ}\text{C}$ , fahrenheit and celsius scale show the same Reading.
5. The chemical process in which substances go from being in a solid state to a gaseous state is known as sublimation.
6. An Acid mixture that dissolves gold is called aqua Regia.
7. Plaster of Paris, fine white powder used for casts and moulds, is produced by heating gypsum.
8. Carbon comes in a number of different forms, these include diamond, graphite, and an impure form of coal.
9. Xenon is an extremely rare chemical element that gets its name from the Greek word that means stranger.
10. The solubility of gas in water decreases with an increase in the temperature.