POEM- (I WANDERED LONELY AS A CLOUD)

QUES/ ANS

Ques1. Why do you think the poet uses an image of a cloud to describe his loneliness?

Ans- The poet uses an image of a cloud to express his loneliness because the cloud wanders alone in the sky and seem lonely.

Ques2- How did the poet feel in the company of daffodils?

Ans- The poet felt joyous and gay in the company of daffodils.

Ques3- Why do you think the poet refer to the daffodils as golden?

Ans- The daffodils are yellow in colour and the sun's ray falling on them made them shine like gold. That's why the poet refers the daffodils as golden.

Ques4- When does the sight of the daffodils come to the poet's mind later in the poem?

Ans- The sight of the daffodils come to the poet's mind when he is either lonely or in a pensive mood.

Ques5- Read the stanza and answer the following questions:

For oft, when on my couch I lie
In vacant or in pensive mood,
They flash upon that inward eye
Which is the bliss of solitude.
And then my heart with pleasure fills,
And dances with the daffodils/

1. Name the poet.

Ans. William Wordsworth.

2. What does happen to the poet when he lies on his couch?

Ans. The poet explains that whenever he lies on his couch, the memory of the daffodils flashes through his mind which brings him happiness.
